Among the presents received by the bride is a completely furnished home at 2855 Summit place northwest, where the couple now reside.

The marriage of Miss Emily Almina Shipley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry C. Shipley, to Mr. Louis Allan Smith on July 4, 1914, at Annapolis, Md., was announced by Mrs. Ada Mills Payne at her home in Rhode Island avenue. The announcement came as a great surprise to the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. The guests present at the announcement supper were Miss Jeannette Campbell, Miss Cora Keeley, Miss Mabel Wheelock, Mrs. Elizabeth Fowler, Mrs. Ada Mills Payne, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Mills, Miss Thelma Mills Payne, Mr. Lorenzo P. Fowler, Mr. Charles E. "Frouley," Mr. McKimley Kreigh, Mr. Milo Lang, Mr. Edwin Niles, and Mr. Walter C. Mills. Later the bride and bridegroom, stationed in the palm-lined banked bay window, received the congratulations of their wedding friends. The bride wore a gown of blue crepe de chine and lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The vaudeville performance at the Playhouse yesterday in aid of the Belgian relief fund, consisted of several dances, songs, a monologue, a cabaret scene, and a short play. Among those who took part in the cabaret scene were Miss Georgia Schofield, Miss Marian Van Buren, Miss Manuella de Pena, Miss Helen Walcott, Miss Rebekah Wilmer, Miss Frances Hoar, and Miss Lillian Hendrick.

There was a song by Mrs. S. I. R. T. Smith, the music of which was composed by Mrs. Lawrence Townsend and the words by her daughter, Miss Ivonne Townsend. It has been sung several times in New York and Philadelphia for the relief of the Belgians with great success. Mr. George O'Connor sang several popular songs. A clever monologue was given by Mr. John Chew. Mr. Robert Bell gave a dramatic recital, called "The Progress of Madness." The play, which was Strindberg's "The Father," was acted by Mr. W. Mason Wright and Mr. Robert Bell, and is a strong representation of a psychological subject. Miss Mildred Anderson and Miss Elizabeth Kinzley gave special dances. Mr. Henry Dickson danced with Miss Hendrick, and there were others in the chorus and dances. A committee of flowers and program was composed of Miss Louise Hoar, Miss Margaret Clark, Miss Edith Blair, Miss Minna Blair, Miss Margaret Tuttle, Miss Adelaide Tuttle, Miss Anita Henry, Miss Cecelia McCullum and Miss Ruth Starvante. The patronesses were Miss Havemith, Mrs. Paul Bartlett, Mrs. Montgomery Blair, Mrs. Boardman, Mrs. Alexander G. Bell, Mrs. Chew, Mrs. Clevens, Mrs. Murray A. The Twentieth Century Club will hold its January meeting Thursday morning at All Souls' Unitarian Church. The usual program will be omitted so that the entire time may be given to the revision of the constitution and by-laws. A meeting of the board of directors of the club took place last Thursday. The music section will hold its January meeting on Monday, January 4, at 8 o'clock, at 308 Mount Pleasant street. Mr. Albert W. Harned, organist of the Church of the Ascension, will give a concise exposition of the history and science of counterpoint. Miss Edith Garrett Johnson will illustrate Mr. Harned's talk with carefully chosen examples on the piano from works of the great masters. Counterpoint and the old dance forms will be studied by the section this season under the leadership of Mr. Howard L. Wilkins. Meetings will be held on the first Monday of each month at 2 o'clock instead of the fourth Monday as previously announced in the year-book. The travel section will meet on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock with the leader, Mrs. William F. Ham, 321 Woodley place.

The Theta Kappa Phi Sorority of Central High School gave an attractive dance last night at the Jardin de Danse gold room. Miss Dorothy Chapman, Miss Alice Smith, Miss Louise Steinberg, and Miss Miriam Long were in charge.
